Von SE Jakes, Stephanie Tyler : Dirty Deeds (English Edition) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Dirty Deeds (English Edition):

KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen2 von 2 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. spy vs. spookVon FelizOkay now I've read this and I'm torn.On the one hand, I loved it. Come on, it's SE Jakes, it's Cillian (secretive, sexy, onmiscient, ruthless, daring) and Mal (mysterious, mute, omnipotent, tall, dark, wicked) and it has Prophet showing up now and then, what's not to love? SE Jakes's books are always mainly about hard, manly men and their way toward each other, she's the master of erotic tension and she writes sex like nobody's business. There IS plot,too, but...yeah. That's the other hand.Because the plot was a hellish mumbo-jumbo of incredulities, half-hints, names and characters thrown around at random and just plain far fetched nonsense. There's an elusive, even more omnipotent villain who plays the allegedly almost superhuman main characters like chess pieces, and there are terrorists popping up out of nowhere, there's casual violence and there are electronic gadgets that make the impossible magically happen.So yes, I've read this and I WILL read the next, but it irked me to no end.0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Spin Off from "Hell or High Water", no real ending but a great start for a new seriesVon CoffeeAndBooks I have received an ARC via NetGalley I fell in love with S.E. Jakes storytelling through the "Hell or High Water" Series and "Dirty Deeds", the first book in a new series has potential to become one of my favorites... especially because the main characters -Mal and Cillian- of this sparkling new series were minor characters in "Hell or High Water"!Instant love, if you ask me ;) "Dirty Deeds" is a fast paced novel, two hot operatives playing cat and mouse with each other -superb spy games until the end-, smoking hot sex and a plot, which kept me glued to the pages.It does not have a real cliffhanger, BUT no real closure either, I guess we have to wait until Book #2 to see what fate has in store for Mal and Cillian.
