Von Shuchi Singh Kalra : Done With Men (English Edition) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Done With Men (English Edition):

KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Funny, fast moving, quirkyVon KimberleyI loved every moment of this story and enjoyed the chaotic lead figure in her self-analyzation. Wonderfully written with an amusing plot.

Kurzbeschreibung What is a girl to do when all the men showing up in her life are the wrong kind, until she's had it with the entire male species! Done With Men - Shuchi Singh Kalra's debut work - is a heart-warming romantic comedy about men, relationships and how love can appear in the most unexpected places. If you are someone who enjoys rom-coms and books by Sophie Kinsella, Helen Fielding and Jill Mansell, you do not want to miss this book!

Travel journal, Kairavi Krishna (Kay) has had it with men. After a series of disasters (losers, philanderers, leeches, mama's boys and possessive psychos), she is all too tempted to walk out on the prospect of ever finding love. But just when Kay is Done With Men, she meets Mr. Right. Accompanied by her best friend and flat-mate Baani, she sets off for Goa, hoping to get away from her miserable love life and vowing to stay clear of the male species. Goa however, has a host of surprises in store for her. Ricky, her pesky ex-boyfriend, is busy painting the town red with his hot new girlfriend. Now what is poor Kay to do, other than overdose on vodka, smoke pot, get an outrageous tattoo and fall off the hotel balcony? She wakes up in the hospital to the tender ministrations of Dr. Vivian DeMello, suave and handsome as hell. Will Kay stick to her guns or will she fall for his ridiculously sexy charms? And what's up with the mixed signals he's giving out?
