Just okayVon jeanne adamekiI am sure it is just me but unfortunately this series just doesn't grab me. Dying Wishes is the second book I read (I also had read Last Wool and Testament)and it left me feeling unsatisfied.There are a number of small things that bother me. I will just mention the two that were the most often in my mind as I was reading. First the fact that Kath kept taking off work to sleuth when she is really worried about money. But what bothers me the most is, even though I love reading about ghosts, Geneva really irritates me. I do not just get a little exasperated--she annoys the heck out me...This is, of course, just a personal opinion.2.5 stars
