Kurzbeschreibung Andy Stevens was a Rock God of the music world in the 1970s and 80s. He lived his life on the road, going from one concert venue to the next. And then he met the sweet girl-next-door, Beth Morgan, his Bethy. As a couple they spent many years together traveling lifes highway a path with many ups and downs, detours, and finally a place where they would spend their forever together, but forever was a brief moment. Carlee Oliver became an unexpected addition to Andys life that changed his direction completely. She taught him how to love unconditionally and became the daughter he never knew he needed. But now she was off in Europe, married, sharing her life with a new husband, and for the first time in many years, Andy found himself alone. Reflections of years past and memories led him on a new journey. Could he share his heart again?
