Von Fred Limberg : Ferris' Bluff (English Edition) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Ferris' Bluff (English Edition):

Wow, htte ich nicht gedacht!Von PeabodyVor ber einem Jahr habe ich mir dieses Buch als Freeby heruntergeladen, und es prompt vergessen. Das Cover schreit nicht wirklich "lies mich", oder? Als ich aber anfang, zu lesen, konnte ich nicht mehr aufhren.ber den Inhalt will ich nix weiter schreiben, die offizielle Zusammenfassung ist eigentlich ganz hilfreich. Was dieses Buch ausmacht ist das "world building". Sorry, ich wei nicht, wie ich das auf deutsch ausdrcken soll. Das Bild dieser amerikanischen Kleinstadt irgendwo in Arkansas entsteht so natrlich und ohne endlose Beschreibungen im Lauf der Erzhlung, dass ich fast meine, dort schon mal gewesen zu sein (und Leute, ich war zwar in Amerika, aber noch nie in Arkansas). Der Ablauf der Geschichte ist einfach schlüssig und glaubhaft. Und die Charaktere sind richtig sympathisch (na ja, außer den bösen Typen, aber die sind auch verständlich in ihren Motivationen). Ace ist endlich mal ein Held, der zwar richtig zulangen kann, aber die Gratwanderung zwischen alles der Polizei berlassen und Selbstjustiz einigermaßen verantwortlich meistert. Richtig gutes Buch!

Kurzbeschreibung Ace is on the run from everyone, it seems. Hes running from a busted Witness Protection Program assignment, an international collection of gangsters and arms merchants he pissed off working undercover, and worst of all from his own scarred self-image and the nightmares that haunt him. After two lonely years on the road he risks a short visit with his old friend, Granville Tubbs, who lives in the sleepy small town of Ferris Bluff, Arkansas. He hasnt even had a tingle that anyone has been on his trail for almost a year. What could go wrong in a few days? Plenty, it turns out. But some things go right, too. Shotgun ambushes aside. The ultimate loner, Ace is soon brought under the spell of the quirky small town and its residents. As he tries to help Tubbs, all the while jealously guarding his alias, the friendliness of the townsfolk chips away at the wall of solitude hes built. Its as if Leets and Dicky and Art Drury are determined to become his new friends. And the pretty widow, Annie Traverswell, try as he might he cant deny the growing mutual attraction between the two of them. He runs smack up against the dark side of Ferris Bluff in no time. The greedy lawyer, Tremont, and his slutty wife, Reena, are after something in Tubbs estate. The local mechanic, Pink, is out to mess him up, too. Ace is soon enmeshed in a battle of wits and wills with some of the locals. And if that aint thorny enough, Russian arms dealers who Ace hurt badly on his last assignment have been keeping a loose watch on Tubbs. When he discovers that Annies husbands accident wasnt an accident at all and Dicky Stover, the victim of a brutal beating, is killed while in the hospital, hitting the road is no longer an option. Ferris Bluff, a thriller with a smokin hot romance tucked inside!
