KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Great Novella in the Reed Brothers SeriesVon SabineDaniel served in Afghanistan where he not only lost his leg and his men and friends but also his hope and the will to live. It is New Year's Eve and he has a bucket list and a gun in his hotel room. It is pretty obvious what his plans are. But life has other plans for him and fate brings him to the Reed brothers' tattoo shop because getting a tattoo is one item on his list and this is when his life changes because fixing his grandfathers' watch brings him Faith and faith is all Daniel needs..The story of these two people was heartbreaking and made me cry so hard. Tammy, I think your stories are getting better and better with each book and I can only imagine what Matt's story will be like. He is my favorite of all the Reed brothers and I'm really looking forward to your next books. I read the five Reed stories within a few days and loved them all very much.

Kurzbeschreibung "You'll find Faith in the clock shop," Peter Reed says. Daniel has a list of things he wants to do before the clock strikes twelve on December 31st. 1. Get a tattoo 2. Ride a horse-drawn carriage in the snow 3. See a Broadway play 4. Buy hot chestnuts from a street vendor 5. Eat a one-pound burger at Rockos 6. Drink hot chocolate on a bench in the park 7. Fix my watch Daniel's watch stopped working when he lost all his men, his leg, and his hope in Afghanistan. A chance encounter at Reed's Tattoo Parlor leads him to Faith, a redhead with the prettiest green eyes he's ever seen. Daniel intends to meet his deadline before the clock strikes midnight, and Faith sets out to help him. But she is goodness and light, and hes not ready to let her warmth shine on him. Faith takes care of her aging grandmother and knows how precious life is. But can she help Daniel realize it before it's too late? She has less than twenty-four hours. Tick tock. Tick tock.
