Von David Weber, Jane Lindskold : Fire Season (Honor Harrington - Star Kingdom Book 2) (English Edition) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Fire Season (Honor Harrington - Star Kingdom Book 2) (English Edition):

Kundenrezensionen Hilfreichste Kundenrezensionen 1 von 1 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Die Besiedelung einer neuen Welt. Von M. W. Broscheit Der zweite Band über Stefanie Harrington auf Sphinx erinnert mich ein wenig an einige Darkover Romane von Marion Zimmer Bradley, eine wunderschöne, geradlinige Coming of Age Geschichte und wird zurecht als Young adult series eingeordnet. D. Weber beweist damit, dass er nicht nur die heroisch, militärische Schiene beherrscht, sondern auch Geschichten mit viel Humor, dazu Einsicht in zwischenmenschliche Interaktionen und doch einigen Tiefgang, schreiben kann. Stefanie ist in diesem Band auf dem Weg zum Erwachsenwerden, dem Autor ist es gut gelungen diese bekannten Probleme in eine spannende Rahmenhandlung um die Baumkatzen und die Besiedlung einer neuen Welt einzubauen. Erzählt wird die Handlung vorrangig aus der Sicht von Stefanie und ihrer Baumkatze Lionheart oder Climbs Quickly, wie er bei seinem Volkheit. Daneben begleitet der Roman auch noch Anders, den Sohn eines Anthropologen, dessen Gruppe untersucht ob Baumkatzen eine bewusste, intelligente Spezies sind. Stefanie durchlebt ihre erste Verliebtheit, lernt mit ihrem Freund Karl was es bedeutet ein Ranger auf dem Planeten Sphinx zu sein, lernt neue Freunde kennen und rettet zwei Baumkatzen aus einem neuen Clan. Ein Teil der Erzählung befasst sich mit der Gefahr von Feuer in trockenen Wäldern und wie man damit umgeht. Nicht nur dieser Teil erinnert an Webers Heimat Nordamerika, auch das Verhältnis zu den Baumkatzen, deren Verhalten und wie sie von den Siedlern betrachtet werden hat etliches mit dem Leben dort, den Ureinwohnern und der Besiedlung von Amerika zu tun. Der Band hat nur wenig mit der Hauptserie um Honor Harrington zu tun, außer dass Stefanie eine ihrer Vorfahren war und als erste den Kontakt zu den Baumkatzen hergestellt hat. Dafür ist er vergnüglich zu lesen, die Charaktere sind gut ausgearbeitet und spannend zu schreiben beherrscht Weber sowieso. Band 3 dieser Trilogie wartet schon auf meinem Kindle. 1 von 1 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. nice kid's book Von Alex M. This second volume on teenage Honor Harrington is, more than "real" science-fiction, more like many adventures from any wild frontier. If you're into stories of pioneering settlers and opposing nature, this one shouldn't disappoint, even though the storylines are quite straightforward, like one would expect from books angled at an audience around 12-14, and characters seldomly surprise. "Fire Season" also sets the background for the developing relations between humans and treecats, laying the ground for the 3rd installment in this prequel series, the Treecat Wars.

Kurzbeschreibung Second entry in a new young adult series by New York Times best seller David Weber, and the prequel to the hugely popular Honor Harrington adult science fiction saga. Fire in the forest and a cry for help from a trapped and desperate alien mother! Unfortunately, this is one cry no human can hear. Stephanie Harrington, precocious fourteen-year-old Provisional Forest Ranger on the planet Sphinx, knows something is wrong from the uneasy emotion that is flooding into her from her treecat friend, Climbs Quickly. But though Stephanie's alien comrade shares a tight bond with his two legs, he cannot communicate directly to her the anguished call from one of his people. Still, their strong and direct bond of feeling may be enough. Stephanie and fellow ranger Karl Zivonik respond to Climbs Quickly's rising waves of distress. Fire season on the pioneer world of Sphinx has begun. But there are those who want to use the natural cycle of the planet for personal gain and to get rid of the one obstacle that stands in the way of acquiring even greater land and power on Sphinx: the native treecats. Now it's up to Stephanie and Climbs Quickly, along with their friends, family, and allies to prevent disaster and injustice from befalling a treecat clan. But in the process Stephanie must be certain to preserve the greatest secret of all. It is the knowledge that the treecats of Sphinx are not merely pets or servants, but are highly intelligent in their own right that they are a species fully deserving of rights, respect, and freedom. And keeping the secret that will allow the treecats time to develop a mutually beneficial relationship with humankind. It all begins with the friendship of a girl and her treecat. At the publisher's request, this title is sold without DRM (Digital Rights Management). Lexile Score: 1000A lifetime military history buff, David Weber has carried his interest in history into his fiction. In the New York Times best selling Honor Harrington series, the spirit of both C.S. Forester's Horatio Hornblower and history's Admiral Nelson are evident. With over five million copies of his books in print, David Weber is the fastest rising star in the Science Fiction universe. His Honor Harrington series boasts over 3 million copies in print, and Weber has had over thirteen of his titles on The New York Times Best Seller List. War of Honor, book 10 in the series appeared on over twelve Best Seller lists, including The Wall Street Journal, The New York Times, and USA TODAY. While he is best known for his spirited, modern-minded space operas, he has also developed a fantasy series, of which two books have been published: Oath of Swords and The War God's Own. David's solo work also includes three novels of the "Dahak" series, and the stand alone novels: Path of the Fury and The Excalibur Alternative. Weber's first published novels grew out of his work as a war game designer for the Task Force game Starfire. With collaborator Steve White, Weber has written four novels set in that universe: Insurrection, Crusade, In Death Ground, and The Shiva Option. Recent bestsellers in planetary adventures also include the teamwork of John Ringo in the best selling Empire of Man series where the titles March Upcountry, March to the Sea, March to the Stars and We Few have made appearances on The New York Times List. Weber's proliferation continues with author Eric Flint, where they joined forces in the Best Selling "Ring of Fire" alternate history series, for 1634: The Baltic War, coming in May. A popular guest at science fiction conventions, Weber makes his home in South Carolina with his wife Sharon, three children and a passel of
