EmpfehlenswertVon KatherinaEine sehr schne Version von Pride Prejudice. Mir hat gerade die medizinische Variante gefallen, da ich selber aus dem Bereich komme.0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Well doneVon verenaIch habe dieses Sequel sehr gern gelesen und konnte es kaum aus der Hand legen. Ein unnahbarer Darcy, eine fast schon arrogante Lizzy, ein fieser Collin, eine bezaubernde Jane... alles dabei. Mitunter schwer zu verstehen waren die Szenen whrend der Arbeit (eigentlich bin ich auch kein Fan von Arztromanen). Ich lese viele Sequels auf Englisch, aber bei medizinischen Fachausdrcken wird es eng. Zumal die Autorin offensichtlich Krankenschwester ist und sich vielleicht etwas ablenken lsst.... Trotzdem: Eine solide Story, romantisch, spannend. Klare Lese-Empfehlung!

KurzbeschreibungLizzy Bennett always told herself she was too busy for love, especially since she was working full-time as a nurse at Meryton Medical Center and helping to care for her young niece. When her sister Jane catches the attention of the young medical resident Dr. Charlie Bingley, Lizzy does everything she can to help her sister find happiness, even if it means enduring the presence of Charlies arrogant friend Dr. William Darcy.In this modern retelling of Pride and Prejudice, familiar characters are reimagined but the overarching question remains: will Lizzy and Darcy overcome their personal and social contrivances to find true love?=====Contains sexual references and profanity, but no sexually explicit content.KurzbeschreibungLizzy Bennett always told herself she was too busy for love, especially since she was working full-time as a nurse at Meryton Medical Center and helping to care for her young niece. A night shift nurse by trade, she spends her non-work hours caring for her husband, two young daughters, and rambunctious dog, all while ignoring/despising any form of housework.
