DEVOURED EACH WORD.Von Kasey CreesHEART POUNDING AND ACHING. TEARS IN MY EYES. DEVOURED EACH WORD.This is what Flawed made and gave me.This book is consuming. From the start to finish I couldn't put it down.Writing this story around 9/11 allowed me to have some form of experience and feelings about the subject before I started the book. This was perfectly scripted. Every reader will be able to relate to the scenes in this book. KEETS: This man is amazing. Loving. Sexy as sin. Possessive. Alpha. Tormented. All of these things wrap up the man Keets. NATALIE: Is a beautiful person. She too suffers severe Mental Anguish and low self-confidence. Feelings worthless. These two characters have you tap into such deep feelings. Also have your panties changed a few times. ;) It draws you in till the end and leaves you craving more.

Kurzbeschreibung Behind the brightest smile, can lay the darkest truth . . . KEETS: I watched in horror the day the World Trade Centre collapsed, taking with it my fiancée and unborn child. As a firefighter on the scene, I blame myself for not rescuing them. Enlisting in the United States Army did nothing to dissuade my guilt, it only proved to me what I knew all along: The world is too cruel, too dark and twisted to live in any longer. So I'm taking the easy way out. On the anniversary of 9/11, on my 40th birthday, I will return to Ground Zero, where I will finally be reunited with my loved ones. Forever. I have just three weeks left to live. NATALIE: It would destroy my sister if she ever found out why I really came back home. She thinks I'm just here to help out with Saddles, but the truth is I have a secret, one that tears me apart and threatens to consume me. It was just one night. One stupid, messed-up, drunken night. The consequences will live with me forever. When these flawed hearts collide, will they heal one another . . . or burn together in a blaze of glory?
