Once she stops running for her life.A typical day at a Chicago travel agency turns deadly when Blayne Keller witnesses to a mafia murder. Overnight, her life is turned upside down and she is thrust into WITSEC, the Federal Witness Protection Program, against her wishes. But the mob is determined to keep her from testifying and has someone on the inside leaking information about her every move. Only Alexi Nikolos, an alluring but dangerous WITSEC Inspector with an agenda of her own, can keep Blayne alive-- but it's not an easy task when the sparks between them are flying faster than the bullets aimed at their heads.-----Definitely a "good" book by a better author. An intriguing story, likable main characters, great writing...so where did it go all wrong? I can tell you... from page 100 on it went downhill. Up to that page this is a brilliant book. From mentioned page 100 though, I was getting more and more frustrated. I wanted to slap the character of Blayne to her senses and I couldn't stand to read more and more about her throwing herself at the US Marshall like a very needy woman, which from the description she isn't. It was painful to read her humiliate herself over and over again. It didn't help that the author had the US Marshall at least have thoughts about how she liked the woman under her protection...cause all she did was shut Blayne down. I get that a romance needs some difficulties but please let's not have 190 pages full of humiliation and self-pity. Moreover, the author wants us to believe that Blayne is that stupid to send out emails while fleeing and hiding from the mob AND from the Witness Protection system????!!!! COME ON! Give me a break here. This was the first book by Baldwin that I read and I will read others in the hope that this is just a once in a lifetime mistake.
