KurzbeschreibungWhen pampered publishing princess, Rebecca Heller crashes her father's Porsche, her parents are livid, doling out the punishment of the century. Being exiled to live with a grandmother she never knew existed is one thing, but to live in a house that can fit in her closet without electricity or running water? Insanity. Enter Dylan Laughertyan Adonis in tight jeans and flannel shirt. He's sarcastic, funny, and hot enough to make hell boil over. Believing him the storybook knight in shining armor, she flaunts her style and grace, but instead of asking for her phone number, the farm boy showers her with hostility. How can she be expected to survive a six-month banishment to a place where she can't use a blow dryer and geese attack her Gucci shoes? Not to mention the brooding farm boy she can't stop thinking about.
