It took place in my New Orleans, my home town (or should I say city). She is the first author who writes about N.O. and gets the streets, etc. correct. The romance is very good, as was the mystery. I read Shocking Pink and felt she could not write one as good as that one, but how wrong I was. I still have 3 more of her books to read and I am looking forward to all of them. If you pick up a book by Erica Spindler, you CANNOT GO WRONG. If you notice, all of her books got 5 star ratings. Well, one got 4 1/2*s. I cannot recommend enough that you pick up on one (no, on all of her books). You WON'T be sorry.0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. I have never read but one book in my whole life. That was until my mother gave me the book Forbidden Friut by Erica Sprindle. I never knew reading could be so exciting and suspenseful! This book has totally changed my perspective on reading. I actually can't wait to read another book. I can't believe it. This book had my attention from the very first word. I couldn't put it down. I loved the fact that every person and each incident seemed so real. I felt like I was the characters. Their feelings and hardships were so familiar to me. I could tell that the author deffinately had alot of experiance from life. She was so in touch with people's feelings. She knew what it was like to be emotionally abused, physically abused, and sexually abused. She also Knew what the lasting effects of the abuse was if not dealt with properly. I highly recommend this book to anyone who has ever felt alone, afraid, or hurt in any way. 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Forbidden read Von Anna My overall impression of this book was that it was good. Not great, not terrible, just plain good. As an avid reader of Spindler's I must say that this long anticipated book should have been anything but. The storyline was very unreal as well as the characters. Gloria seemed to be a too annoyingly perfect: The beautiful, spoiled, rich daddy's girl who always gets what she wants. The plot was very predictable, (gee, I wonder if Gloria will get the man that she's been pining over? Hmmmm, well since she gets everything else.....) and at times, the storyline grew dull and quite boring. If you want to read the book just to see what all the fuss is about, all the power to you. But don't say that I didn't warn you.
