well told but a bit far-fetched Von Hoener, Birgit A nice read, with the occasional glimpse of humour, but overall I think the stories were a bit far-fetched. I at least could not really "get" into them. Although the problems between the couples were genuine ones, I do not think people really react the way they do in these books. The narration style, however, was good, and the characters were likeable.

Kurzbeschreibung The Carringtons~Three brothers, three relationships tested FOREVER YOURS~DESTINY BAY ROMANCES 1-3 PLUS BONUS BOOK! Escape to sun-drenched beach town Destiny Bay where sparks fly as hot and handsome Carrington men woo their beautiful lovers in search of true love and that illusive butterfly, Happily Ever After. Three full-length romances covering the lives and loves of the Carringtons. Three brothers, Reid, Matt and Grant, face heartbreak and ultimately find love to last a lifetime. BONUS BOOK! That Crazy Summer Prequel to the Forever Yours Box Set A summer to build your dreams on Mimi Carrington tries to find healing for her broken life at an artists retreat where she has followed her art teacher and mentor. She hadn't counted on Jeffrey Lane, an annoyingly sexy composer, moving in next to her and sending her emotions into a tail spin as he begins to teach her what life is really all about: taking chances and trusting her own instincts. Can she teach him how to fall in love? My Little Runaway She ran. He wants answers. But some secrets are just too painful to share. Jenny jumps out of airplanes in order to block out the painful memories of what made her run away from her family. Reid wants to fix the damage. The only problem is, he doesn't know how deep it is, and how impossible it will be to cover over. Will his intoxicating love tempt her to risk it all again? Or will it end up making everything worse after all? Wife For a Night Forced to pretend to be Matt's wife, Janet Cardona plans to blow his cover just as soon as she gets her cat back. Haunted by lies that have hurt her in the past, Janet can't stand slick operators. When Matt coerces her into pretending to be his wife in order to fool a nice old lady, she hates every minute of it. Doesn't she? He's nothing but a despicable con man and yet, he's the most exciting man she's ever known, a far cry from the academic world she's used to. Too Scared to Breathe An injured race car driver and a physical therapist who wants to help him lose the need for speed. Carrie Harlow can't stand arrogant men like race car driver Grant Carrington but something about him keeps her coming back for more. She knows he's not a forever kind of guy and she knows he lives life on the edge in ways she can't comprehend. But as she tries to heal his body with her hands, he chases away her fears with his kisses until finally, it's too late to avoid risking the inevitable tragic end to their fairy tale love story. (The Destiny Bay Romances all take place in the same world and are loosely connected--but each story can stand on its own. Each book contains love scenes.)
