found out it was a romance (NOT my favorite genre). But I decided to give it a try and was pleasantly surprised. This was cleverly written, and I enjoyed the blonde jokes. I don't like the way most romances portray women as helpless and pitiful and men as distant and controlling. This book broke away from those stereotypes and gave me a hero and heroine that I could empathize with. I could have lived without all the sex, but I guess that's just part of the genre. I found the book light and easy to read.

Die Hauptperson Selene wird durch einen Voodoo-Zauber in das New Orleans etwa 20 Jahre vor dem Bürgerkrieg versetzt. Sie landet auf einem der sogenannten Viertelblutblle und wird irrtümlich für eine der jungen Frauen gehalten, die einen "Beschtzer" suchen. Ihr Retter in Gestalt des jungen Pflanzers James nimmt sie mit auf seine Plantage. Er ist unehelich geboren und ein Auenseiter, seine Frau verschwand in den Smpfen und ist anscheinend tot, sein Halbbruder verfolgt ihn mit Hass. Selenes Angabe sie stamme aus der Zukunft, hlt Jmaes zu Anfang für Spinnerei. Die Idee der Geschichte ist eigentlich gut, aber die Umsetzung lässt mehr als zu wünschen übrig. Man hätte sehr viel aus diesem Zusammenprall der Zeiten machen können. Die Liebesgeschichte kommt unglaublich rber, das Komplott des Halbbruders ebenfalls. Selbst dramatische Ereignisse wie die Ermordung von James Mutter werden so blutleer beschrieben, dass sie keinerlei Emotionen auslösen. Fazit des Buches für mich. Ich habe einige neue Blondinenwitze gelernt, das wars denn auch schon.

This was one of the best books I've read in a long time. It had romance and it was funny. Selene really was a cute character and James was the perfect guy for her. I would recommend this book to others. I'm glad I purchased it. I almost didn't because I thought it was going to be a silly book but I was wrong. It was worth it.

Kurzbeschreibung
Lost in the Bayou...Selene has always had three great passions: men, food . . . and Gone With the Wind. Still, the glamorous model always seems to be starving for both nourishment and affection. Weary of the petty world of high fashion, she heads to New Orleans for one last shoot before she chucks it all and begins a whole new life. But she doesn't realize that, thanks to an errant voodoo spell, her new life will happen 150 years in the past . . . and in the company of a dark and brooding gentleman who could give Rhett Butler a run for his money! An alarmingly handsome Southern planter, James Baptiste may not have Rhett's cavalier spirit and his plantation is certainly no Tara! But it's clear as crystal that this virile Creole is a lover worth giving a damn about. And with God as her witness, Selene vows she will never go hungry for this man again!

Sandra Hill is an author to watch. Her innovative romances are some of the hottest and sassiest on the market. And her hilariously funny time-travel romances are cutting edge; they're always just a little too racy, raunchy, wild, and funny. If you haven't read Gone with the Wind or seen the movie, you will still laugh out loud at this half take-off, half homage to one of America's greatest love stories. Sandra Selente ("Selene") is a supermodel whose favorite movie of all time is Gone with the Wind. When she finds herself transported back in time to the old South, Selene's only point of reference is the movie. She quickly learns she is not cut out to be a Southern belle. When James Baptiste rescues her, she declares him to be her very own Rhett--until she discovers he has a penchant for blondes. Thank goodness that for Selene "tomorrow is another day."
