KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Nette, saubere KurzgeschichteVon BcherliebeAuf 40 Seiten ist nicht viel Platz. Darum liest sich diese Geschichte auch mehr wie ein schnelles Mrchen. Gabriella, ein verwaistes Barmdchen, bekommt die Pflege fr das achtjhrige Mdchen Lilly bertragen. Um ihr ein besseres Leben als das Saloonleben zu geben, meldet sie sich fr das Brautprogramm, bei dem Hftlinge eine zweite Chance auf Freiheit bekommen, wenn sie heiraten. Gabriellas Brutigam ist der Pfarrer Sawyer, der aus mildttigen Grnden gestohlen hat. Das Alter der beiden erfahrt der Leser nicht. Sie finden sich auf Anhieb sympatisch, sind gut und nett zueinander und arbeiten beide an ihrer Ehe. Es gab keinerlei Schwierigkeiten zu berwinden, alles lief wie geschmiert.Fr mich blieben noch ein paar Fragen ungeklrt, etwa wieso der echte Vater der Tochter sich nicht besser um seine Familie gekmmert hat oder warum der Pfarrer noch nicht verheiratet war. Alles wird recht schwarz-wei dargestellt. Man mu nur beten und schon werden einem alle Snden vergeben. Viel Tiefe darf man nicht erwarten, aber fr eine kurze Lesepause zum Abtauchen ist es gut geeignet.

KurzbeschreibungSawyer Stephenson struggled with his faith in the past. Angry with God for not providing for the people in his small town, he chose to steal from the rich to help those in need. Sentenced to jail time, the pastor who strayed from the path realizes that God may be giving him a second chance when he is offered the opportunity to participate in a program that seems almost too good to be true.Gabriella Emerson is tired of being looked down on by other women. If she had to choose, she would have never chosen the life of a saloon girlbut desperation had a way of making you do things youd later regret. After inheriting a daughter from one of the other barmaids she worked with, Gabriella is determined to start fresh, so that the child will not be doomed to follow down the same path. Gabriella moves to Mucksbe, Texas and signs up to become a Freedom Bride in order to provide for her young charge.Can two very different people find a second chance, or are they doomed to be defined as saint and sinner?This is the fourth novelette of the new Texas Wildflowers series by bestselling authors Leah Atwood and Susette Williams.
