Schreibkunst. Wie kann man Fliegerei und Religion mit einander verbinden? Das ist eben die Kunst.

Kurzbeschreibung When Tom Cutter hires Constantine Shaklin as an engineer in his air freight business, he little realises the extraordinary gifts of his new recruit. Shaklin possesses a religious power which inspires everyone he meets to a new faith and hope for humanity. As Cutter's business grows across Asia, so does Shaklin's fame, until he is widely regarded as a unifying deity. Though he struggles to believe Shaklin is indeed divine, the friendship will transform Cutter's life. Pressestimmen "A story which grips and fascinates, a story enriched by the observation and understanding which have made Shute's work outstanding" (Scotsman) "He holds attention to the last page" (Daily Telegraph) "So convincingly does Shute tell the story and so cleverly does he leave the character of Shaklin deliberately vague that the book is as absorbing as anything he has written, and Cutter one of his finest creations" (Glasgow Herald) Werbetext "On the fields and farms of England, on the airstrips of the desert and the jungle, in the hangars of the Persian Gulf and on the tarmacs of the southern islands, I have walked and talked with God" Round the Bend
