Von Ingrid Stephanie Jordan Title : Rumpled Bear Skin Author : Sable Sylvan Reviewed by : Stephanie Jordan Ms. Sylvan has written another Fairy Tale, that is possible to come true. After all how many people believe in Fairy Tales let alone "Lives Happily Ever After"? You'd be surprised, no one will admit it but almost everyone wants to believe it in their subconscious. Artemis Miller was a PR intern for Asher Lumber Co. having just started working there than being called up to the top floor Big Bosses office was a scary thing. If that wasn't enough the company's the company Casanova was next to her. Yes, he was very nice on the eye, dressed to kill too. To bad he was a one nighter and that's it. They all had a nick name for him. What was it? Jasper Dixon couldn't believe his eyes she was right next to him, he has been attracted to her from the first time he set eyes on her. Not knowing her name he always just watched from afar. What? What did my cousin Cedar just say one week alone with Artemis who doesn't even like him.. Well he couldn't say no. They headed to the cabin in the woods hours away. What will happen to them now?? I was gifted this ARC for an honest and truthful review.

KurzbeschreibungCurvy public relations intern Artemis Miller can spin anything into gold, but can she save the Asher Lumber Company's image? With a little help from billionaire bear Jasper Dixon, anything is possible. The last thing that Artemis Miller wants is to get burned by the handsome shifter she's been paired with by their boss. After all, Jasper Dixon isn't known as 'Rumpled Bear Skin' for nothing: the notorious playboy has a different woman on his bearskin rug every weekend, or so the office legend goes. Is Jasper her fairy tale prince, or is he the villain of his own love story? The only thing that could make working with Jasper worse? The fact that she's assigned to accompany him to the company cabin down in Port Jameson for a full week. The ante's upped when Jasper gives her three chances to guess his mate mark. If she wins, she gets a raise, and if she loses? She has to have dinner with Jasper for the rest of the summer. There's more to this trickster bear shifter than meets the eye... The billionaire grizzly is running a major damage control campaign of his own. Jasper Dixon's reputation precedes him, but he can explain: what's a bear shifter without a mate supposed to do? It's going to take more than pickup lines, wine, and caviar to woo Artemis Miller, the woman he's sure is his fated mate, but of course, those things might just help him get what he wants. When he learns that Artemis has no idea he's one of Seattle's most eligible billionaires, Jasper realizes that the only way he can woo the Montana collegiate is to show her his Port Jameson roots, from taking her salmon fishing to escorting her to the Marionberry Festival. How will Artemis and Jasper save the company's reputation... and their budding romance? Artemis's father might have bragged about her abilities to his bosses at Asher Lumber, but he didn't raise a fool. Artemis isn't sure if Jasper's just putting on an act or if the grizzly werebear is actually trying to befriend her... or even worse, trying to woo her. If it's the latter, Artemis isn't so sure she'll be able to resist Jasper's charms for long... but will she give him a second chance, and more importantly, will Artemis figure out Jasper's mate mark? If you love sassy BBWs and bear shifters are what you live for, sexy billionaires are what you dream of, and fated mates are your obsession, check out Rumpled Bear Skin! This book is a standalone novella, part of Seattle's Billionaire Bears, a series of remixed fairy tales set in Port Jameson, featuring the Dixon Clan.
