Read in several hoursVon AnelavaSleep is for the weak ;) Especially if you have a great book in your hands. So I bought "Runaway Mortal" last night and decided to read the first (haha) chapter to try it out. Well three hours later or so, when the birds started singing, I went to bed: satisfied and disappointed at the same time. Satisfied because it was an amazing book with great characters and plot twists. Disappointed because now I have to wait for an eternity for the second one. The fans of Vampire Academy will definitely find some similarities between these books. At the same time "Runaway Mortal" has its own character, atmosphere, flair and language. The story starts with a poor corndog coming to its untimely demise. After that, we are introduced to some mortals, angels, demons and a random witch. The main heroine is Katerina: a mortal with advanced senses, a student at a paranormal Academy and a rule-breaker on the run. Outside her school she tries to find about the real criminal in a murder she has been accused of, when a trio of supernatural agents appears to bring her back. Not only does she have no answers, but for an ancient prophecy and has to come back to school to find some object out of a fairy tale, but also the arrogant agent makes her life hell. Another problem, the jerk is hot. After some plot twists, interesting and hot developments, the book ends, leaving the reader fulfilled but at the same longing for the second part. "Runaway Mortal" is captivating, since it has everything: suspense, romance, crime, intrigue, action, drama, humor and sexual tension. It's fun to read. P.S. I would really love to read a New Adult version of this story :)

Kurzbeschreibung An ancient prophecy. A high school full of angels and demons. And the only suspect of a murder she didnt commit. Thats the trifecta that starts off Katerina Lyrilles year. After being on the run from the supernatural world for a month, Katerina finally allows herself to be dragged back to school when she discovers the only way to prove her innocence lies in a magical object hidden somewhere in the school. But school is still the stereotypical, condescending place its always been. Being mortala human with advanced abilities Katerina is at the very bottom of the social scale compared to the angels and demons, who are looking for any reason to find her guilty, leaving the job of proving she didnt kill anyone even harder. Her year is only made worse by the arrogant, yet sexy, supernatural agent hired to guard her. At first, he rubs her the wrong way, but as they spend more time together, she cant deny he isnt as aggravating as she thought he was, which is a lucky thing because Katerina is going to need all the help she can get. There is a darkness growing within the school, and someone is out to stop her at all costs. Even if it means her death.
