MMA Fighter Romance at its best!Von NinaIn RYLEYS REVENGE Ryley Jameson and Ashleigh Warren get their well-deserved happily ever after. Oooh, how anxiously Ive been awaiting this book since falling in love with their story in A FIGHTERS DESIRE PART ONE!It is highly recommended to at least read this prequel first, but if you can, you should definitely start from the beginning with these amazing bunch of fighters, which also includes some books of L.P.'s Second Chance series. After Ashleigh left a heartbroken Ryley in the prequel I was devastated I loved the dynamic the two of them shared so you can say I'm more than happy that Ashleigh realized her mistake in this book! Of course Ryley, who still suffers from a broken heart, doesn't go easy on her in fact, he pushes her away at any chance he gets to hurt her as much as she hurt him. He prefers throwing himself into preparation for his most important fight instead the fight for the MMA title for the heavyweight champion against his twin brother Camden. Although Ryley is being a complete azzhole, Ashleigh refuses to give up on him. It takes some time for Ryley to recognize he has gone too far and seriously hurt Ashleigh, but then he is able to swallow his pride and finally goes after her. Only his brother Camden seems to begrudge Ryley's happiness and does everything to tear them apart again. Brotherly love does no longer seem to matter to Camden. The jealousy of his brother has been growing for years and now reaches its peak in a fight between the brothers that knows no rules. Instead of fighting for the title, they fight in an underground MMA ring. It is not the kind of revenge Ryley wanted, yet he cannot not accept it in fact, he needs it: for himself and for Ashleigh. A story of romance, heartache and revenge. It is intense and doesn't let you go until the very end you feel everything these characters are feeling. Both Ryley and Ashleigh are strong characters and once reunited, they aren't willing to let anything come between them again. As for Camden I cannot see how he might redeem himself in his story, CAMDENS REDEMPTION, that will be released early 2015. Still, I'm pretty curious but for now, I dislike him a lot! These underground fights are nothing to mess with they are dark, gritty, and terribly dangerous and not to forget illegal. It guarantees one intense story! I truly loved the angst and the suspense I experienced while reading these raw and graphic fight scenes from jaw dropping, gasping and wincing to heart racing to chewing on my fingernails: I did and felt it all! This is exactly why I love L.P. Dover's MMA fighter books so much! I have yet to find an author who can compete with her vivid writing when it comes to this type of books! That being said, I cannot wait for Pax and Gabriella's story this is going to be another amazing fight and not only on the mat! The indications given in this book already promise that much. I cannot wait!
