KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen2 von 2 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Scary, entertaining and not to be read in the dark !Von HiiriI was never really afraid of spiders, well at least the ones you usually find in your backyard. After reading the book, even those harmless spiders started to look at me and it gives me the creeps.This is one of her best and most chilling, scary, book. Trust me, I've read almost all of her books.The spiders are scary, no question about that, but even scarier is the trip back into the mind of the killer and his past. What a twisted past that is.I don't want to say too much, you better experience it for yourself. But turn on the lights and check the corners for spiders !The pregnant FBI woman is a tough one. You suffer with her, not only because she is dealing with spiders and a real sicko, but also because she has to make tough decisions involving her personal life. She is not presented as teary or sentimental, just dealing with the facts most women in real life face, when they're pregnant and love their husbands and their jobs.Thanks, Lisa, for giving us such a well written, scary and entertaining book !
