Hills Wolves, but the fourth book in the series called Murder in Los Lobos is action pack plus the fact you can't wait to read the next book and keep asking Whose the Murderer? As we all know Alpha Drew Taos was shot point blank in the chest barely missing his heart. Betty the Alpha's pregnant mate is beside herself so her father and sister, Magnolia Holden who goes by Mags drove to Los Lobos to help Betty. Mags is an Omega, trying to soothe Betty but then she could feel Drew, he was anxious and mad ready to shift, problem was the bullet was still in him and shifting could kill him. Mags started talking to him, hearing her voice calmed him enough that he started to relax. Clayton Davies, is a human writer of mystery books, who also happens to care for Mags, not realizing the turmoil she's going through because he's human she runs thinking she can't see him anymore. Not seeing her for days was wrecking havoc on his peace of mind, so he went looking for her. Ending up and finding her in Los Lobos and maybe more than he bargained for too. I was gifted this ARC for an honest and truthful review. What you'll find in this story; a cast of remarkably impressive and engaging characters, fantastic story-line, powerful vivid scene descriptions, superb banter, gripping suspense, emotions spiral, pent-up rage, odious crimes, earth-shattering jaw-dropping toe-curling romance, and a cliffhanger leading into the last book in this series. Clayton is quite smitten over Mags, driving from his cabin everyday to see her at the town book store. When she goes missing for a few days, he tracks down the clothing store her family owns and speaks with her mom. Mom takes a liking to him and without permission sends him to Los Lobos. Mags and her dad are there giving support to her sister Betty while Drew is still in a coma from his gunshot wound. Clayton gives insight to the murders from a detective's point of view which has Ryker liking him a lot. Clayton quickly learns that the love of his life is not who she appeared to be and takes it in stride. He will do all he can to help catch the murderer, while making sure his Mags is well protected.... WOW/INCREDIBLE fast paced well written creative read by a truly gifted author. This Black Hills murder series is fascinating and I wait with bated breath to find out who this psycho is. The characters come alive with the fantastic dialogue, plot and vivid scene descriptions. I so loved Clayton, his intelligence and alpha persona make him a force to be reckoned with. Mags is a gentle soul, but also has a bit of a fiery temper. The chemistry between Clayton and Mags sizzles, and is filled with unwavering devotion. I absolutely relished this story, as it was a most exhilarating read. If you treasure shifter romance with awesome characters and a fantastic mystery this is a terrific book for your library. {I received a copy of this book for a completely honest review}. In the world of shifter romance the possibilities are endless and always fascinating. Without reservation I recommend this book and the series.
