KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. All tied up again in the Mastered series!Von Cassandra5+++++++ tied up stars for Ronin and Amery!Oh how I missed these two! sighs After Ronin's bad injuries and his break from fighting and training, they are getting married and are spending their honeymoon in Japan. But this trip is more than just a honeymoon, it's Ronin's yearly training with his sensei to learn new techniques...or so it was planned. But this time, the training is different, his sensei is different and this gets to Ronin and makes him withdrawn from Amery. Amery is caught in a land she doesn't know the language, mostly on her own with Ronin gone most of the day. This is the first test for their marriage and both have to learn how to deal with this - now that it's them two depending on each other. Ronin learns interesting things about his sensei. Amery gets her eyes open about his training and also his training as a shibaku master, by no other than the sensei's brother who taught Ronin everything. With everything they struggle, their passion and need is burning as always. Get new ideas what to do with a laptop cord, a sacred onsen isn't always sacred, join the mile high club, get lost in new rope techniques. I love Ronin and Amery and this whole Mastered series so much, that I was sad it was just a novella. I'm greedy like that! But Lorelei James put a nice treat at the end with an excerpt of Unraveled! And boy are we in for another HOT read with Shiori and Knox :D
