entspannte zwischendurch lesen. Von MCTOMTOM Nach einem recht interessanten Start hatte ich immer wieder so ein gewisses "Deja vu - Gefühl". Das kennst Du irgendwoher schon. Aber nicht so aufdringlich das ich nicht weiterlesen wollte. Eine nette Geschichte, nichts neues/innovatives, für den Preis absolut ok.

Kurzbeschreibung
What a Ride!" Brilliant book! Absolutely loved it!" "This first book was great. Could not stop reading it" "Wonderful story! Well written" Lieutenant Commander Jason Reynolds has had a string of bad luck lately -- evident by the uncomfortable house arrest bracelet strapped to his right ankle. Worse yet, he's relegated to his grandfathers old house and rambling scrapyard. To complicate things, the women in his life are pulling from every direction. But Its through a bizarre turn of events that Jason is led to a dried up subterranean aquifer hundreds of feet below ground. Here he discovers an advanced alien spacecraft, one that will propel his life in a new direction. The adventure begins and with it new troubles for Jason: The Craing, an unstoppable interstellar threat, is headed right for Earth. A desperate situation goes from bad to worse as the Alliance crumbles. Fortunately, Jason's unorthodox and impetuous nature seems to work in his favor as he moves up to the captains chair. First order of business is to reconnect with his SEAL team compatriots and face this enemy head on. What's at stake? The very survival of the human race. This is a full-length 70,000-word novel, first in the science fiction adventure series for Scrapyard Ship. Also note... the sequel, HAB 12 is also now available! Note from the author: Scrapyard Ship has been completely re-edited as of the 1st of November, 2013. Please be aware these books often have a cliff-hanger ending. I'll do my best to keep Scrapyard as well as Tapped In series books coming so you wont have long to wait for the next book. With that said, thank you and Enjoy!
