Buch kann man zum ersten Mal wieder etwas über Drizzt erfahren. Auch Wulfgar und sein Freund Morik tauchen wieder auf. Aber Drizzt hat sich einen "neuen" Feind gemacht. Einen maskierten Lichtelf, der besessen davon ist, den heuchlerischen Drow zu töten. Ich muss sagen mir hat "Servant of the Shard" besser gefallen. Es war witziger und hatte auch ein angenehmeres Ende, aber dieses Buch ist nicht zu verachten. Ich habe keine zwei Tage gebraucht um es zu lesen. 3 von 3 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Back to the roots Von Chris The Companions of the Hall finally meet again in this most enjoyable of books. Salvatore fans won't be disappointed with this latest journey into the Forgotten Realms, as Salvatore does not only excel at describing action-packed sword fights but also at character development, something he seems to have developed himself with every new book he has published. It's extremely satisfying to note that our heroes are back with a vengeance, and at some points I couldn't help but grin when Drizzt and his friends right some wrongs in the Realms. It's true that the two previous books were more innovative in that they focussed on Wulfgar, Artemis and Jarlaxle and gave us some insights into their thinking. I enjoyed following their development over the course of time and didn't miss the Salvatore-style action so much since he tends to overdo it sometimes. Still, Sea of Swords is a worthy read and fans shouldn't miss this one, because even 14 years after Salvatore's initial book, this series has nothing lost of its magic. 2 von 2 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Sea of swords Von Ein Kunde A splendid continuation of the story of Drizzt and the companions from Mithral Hall that ties up some string ends that have existed from the start. Quite a bit of character development that helps the story flow. The change in Regis was a surprise that truly makes you love him more (I'll let you figure out the change). A nice twist at the end that makes you think about the story long after you've put the book down. I highly recommend it. As usual Salvatore makes you want to keep reading and pick up his previous books and read them again. BRAVO!! I read the book in a Day....if that tells you anything. Now I have to wait a while until the next book comes out. Recommended: The Price of Immortality by C.M. Whitlock, An AWESOME BOK !
