It was sort of different than most of Lori Wick's books yet, it was typical of her books in the way it was written. The plot was neat, a little unrealistic in today's times but, it was rather romantic. One way it was neat was the fact that Charlie had such a bad life and didn't know what real love and care were but, Sean ,(pronounced Shawn), came by and gave her a real reason to live. Along with God's forgiveness, Sean's love and his wonderful family life, Charlie finds out what true love is all about. 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Sean Donovan couldn't forgive his father... Von Ein Kunde This being the 3rd book in the Californian series I read through it quickly but not without tears and pain... Sean had a lot of baggage from his childhood and he searched everywhere for some help and love. I can hardly wait to read Donovan's Daughter.
