since since the last time he has spoken to the man. When Sean and Blair found each other, Blair was only 16 years old and 33 year old Sean sent his mate away to let him grow up and get a good education before he would claim him. But Blair felt rejected and stopped all contact. But now Blair is grown up and at 22 years old can't resist his mate's pull anymore. He has to be near him and he is adamant that he will make Sean see reason and allow him to stay this time and let them be together. But will Sean be able to forgive him for all the hurtful things he said? This is one of my favorites Silver Bullet books. Seeing Sean's loneliness relieved and Blair as a grown up finding his home was sweet. Short, entertaining and a great addition to the series.
