November 2013 384 pages Love Spells #1Book #2 - Searching For Perfect will be out 29 April 2014 - 4,95 StarsMY THOUGHTSKate had to live her whole life not only with a horrible stutter (it's almost gone now though!), she also has to live with a curse/gift: she can tell when people meet their perfect match - their mate! She just needs to touch them both at the same time. All the females in her family history had this 'curse' as she calls it So the obvious profession for her is: MatchMaker She opened up KINNECTIONS with her 2 best friends from college. And even though she tries NOT to use her gift/curse with her clients, their business is going very well. Until Slade Montgomery comes storming in - telling them to NOT accept his sister as a client.Slade doesn't believe in Love and happy ever after. He's a passionate divorce lawyer He wants to protect his little sister from those money-grabbing idiots at KINNECTIONS. But - they're not idiots. He's immediately both attracted and infuriated by Kate. And once Kate accidentally touches him - she knows he's HER match. But he's ALL wrong for her. They don't have anything in common.Slade wants to prove that love doesn't exist - he dares Kate to prove him wrong and accept him as a client.And that's where our Love-Story begins WILL THERE BE A HAPPY END?I'm not telling you, of course I don't want to spoil your reading pleasure _____ I REALLY ENJOYED READING THE BOOKI loved Jennifer's ^Marriage to a Billionaire Series^ - and this is the spin-off. We even meet most of the old characters again And the book of Spells will be found again - in an used book store I normally hate most things supernatural - but it's only this tiny little thing here - that Kate knows when people find their other half. It totally fits with the romantic idea of a matchmaking business It didn't bother me at all.Slade is really HOT and he's sooo completely ALPHA that he's just adorable He doesn't believe in LOVE and HEA - but he hadn't met Kate before - poor guy!He's so sweet - the way he tries to save his sister from the bad matchmaking ladies!He has reason to be afraid for Jane - she once overdosed on pills - and he found her lifeless body in the bathroom - but she says she's really better now and happy and she wants to be responsible for her own life.But he can't let go completely - that's why he shows up at Kinnections.Kate is a really sweet person- she has this adorable dog Robert - who's the secret star of the book - she found him half-dead on the side of the road.Kate obviously believes in love and HEA...like to meet someone who actually believed in love and commitment? A man to grow with in this lifetime and beyond? Someone who saw all her faults and accepted who she was?
