Suspensful and IntriguingVon Ashtin Enterprises/mysteries4you/books4youThis story is the 3rd novel of a trilogy, which I must now read the 1st. Not usually into romantic and love novels, but this story intrigued me by Dorothy-Anne's (main character) husband gone missing on their most important night and then we get into the Asian Cartel which are secretly meeting to end Dorothy-Anne's reign as the Queen of the Hotel empire. In the meantime, we are introduced to Moma Rosa and her eatery and into the Chinese lifestyle and traditions. Where do they all intertwine and where the heck does a hotel empire come into this? Then enters Senator Hunt Winslow Netherland 111 (you can almost imagine how gorgeous this man is!) and his boozier wife Gloria. The plot thickens as we wait for some news of Freddy and the plane crash and in the meantime the Asian cartel are having their meetings. As Dorothy-Anne's hotels are infected by bacteria and called in bank loans, we are still rooting for Dorothy-Anne even though she is a very powerful woman with everything anyone would ever want. You don't feel jealous or want to wish her bad. She really is a NICE and good woman who cares about her guests and friends. Toward the end is some surprises so I won't give anything away but if you are looking for a good suspense and who dunn-it novel without the gore pick this up and enjoy!

I felt the author was tired of writing the book and rushed the final chapters. I also found a few spots where the clues didn't jive. But I do look for these. Otherwise I truly enjoyed the book.

Synopsis Dorothy-Anne Hale-Cantwell stands on top of the world, ready to open the crown jewel in the prestigious luxury hotel empire (whose foundation was depicted in THE TEXAS YEARS and THE LOVE MAKERS). Her life seems complete. But, in one night, twin blows destroy all her dreams. A mysterious consortium makes a hostile bid for the Hale chain. Then comes the devastating revelation that her beloved husband Freddie has died in a plane crash. Into the maelstrom of Dorothy-Anne's life strides Hunt Winslow, the dashing would-be Governor of the State of California. Trapped in a loveless marriage, Hunt senses in Dorothy-Anne a romantic kinship fuelled by an electric chemistry, and he is determined to win her, no matter the price his bitter wife may demand, no matter the cost to his own ambitions. The pressure is enormous and the stakes are high. Even Dorothy's closest allies may be treacherous enemies. Can she risk her empire and her heart by pursuing a second love?
