and returns as a billionaire to his home town, staying in the resort for a week. There he meets Mandy again, former high school queen, who has fallen upon hard times and is now working as a maid in this resort. Likeable characters, romantic setting, good narration style and plot - what more does one require of a romance? Although some of the events and reactions seemed a tiny bit farfetched, I thoroughly enjoyed reading how Zeke overcame Mandy's reluctance regarding relationships. The story was a bit short for my taste, but otherwise, on the whole, a quite enjoyable read.
